

Women's Networking Event

Date of Event 27/07/2010

A 'Business Women's Network' event is taking place on Tuesday 27 July at West Midlands House in Willenhall.

This informal drop-in network is open to all local women in business. It is aimed at:

- * women who own their own business
- * women working from home
- * women in professional roles
- * women who are thinking about starting up a business
- * working mums.

The event is free to attend and a good way to meet other likeminded women in business. Additionally the event is a way of keeping in touch with other local businesses, as well as being a support network to encourage small and medium-sized businesses and start-ups.

Come along armed with business cards, flyers and brochures, and start networking. Refreshments will be available from Café Roma.
