

Hi everyone,

Hope that you are keeping busy and business is going well, October has been a very busy month for us and now here we are in November – can you believe Christmas is just around the corner again! But before we start on Christmas we have a very exciting November coming up and would like to share this with you:

Women in Business - Sandwell Chamber working in partnership with Finditinsandwell, is hosting a fantastic FREE “Women in Business” event on 11th November 10am-2pm, offering practical and motivational support to women in business. Come along and speak to the experts for advice, whether you are a growing existing, or new business start up. As well as providing support, advice and resources there will be plenty of inspiration and motivational support at hand and Sammy will be doing a marketing presentation at the event.

The event is at West Bromwich Albion Football Club in the Richardson Suite. Please come and say “Hello” to us on our stand at this event, we look forward to seeing you there.

Breakfast Meeting at Halesowen College – Sammy will be speaking at this event about “Marketing in a Nutshell”, giving a quick tour of the principles of marketing and how they fit within a small to medium sized business. This event is from 7am-8.30am on 18th November, hope you can join us.

Meet the Buyer Event – FindItInSandwell are holding a special ‘meet the buyer’ event at the Balaji Temple in Oldbury on Thursday 19 November. Buyers from major suppliers to Sandwell Metropolitan Borough Council are set to converge on Oldbury and are getting ready for a special 'meet the buyer' event during Global Enterprise Week this month. Visitors to the event will get the chance to forge links with other local businesses and meet with the council's first-tier suppliers to find out first-hand what they're looking for in their suppliers. Big name suppliers to Sandwell who are set to exhibit include BT, Liberata, Keltruck, Transform Sandwell, Interserve, Bunzl, plus many many more..... You can view the latest news about the event by clicking on this link>
